INTERSECTION

Airs Tuesday, December 1st at 7PM.

THE AMERICAN ST. NICK

World War II exacted a heavy toll on the people of Wiltz, Luxembourg, nearly destroying the small town. Occupied by German forces for four years, the town was subject to the whims of Nazi leadership: streets were renamed, the native language was banned, religious freedoms were curtailed, and Saint Nicolas Day was outlawed. The documentary The American Saint Nick chronicles a day at the height of the war when the battle-weary 28th Infantry Division of the American Army returned hope and joy to the children and people of this war-torn town. On Dec. 5, 1944, American soldiers, led by Harry Stuts, put their guns down for one day and organized a party celebrating the town's centuries-old Saint Nick tradition. Soldiers made hot chocolate from their D-rations, company cooks made donuts and cookies for the children, and 22-year-old corporal Richard Brookins from Rochester, NY played the role of Saint Nick. An emotional and heartfelt story, The American Saint Nick illustrates how American soldiers and residents of the hamlet were able to bond over a moment in time, creating a tradition that continues to this day.

L.A. MAKES

L.A. Makes explores small businesses and the people who make Los Angeles the amazing city that it is. Through the lens of small business owner and 30 year, public television veteran, Tené Harris, the pilot episode, "L.A. Women Who Make" takes you inside the day-to-day world of two small business owners who share their inspiring stories.

Leah Ferrazzani's journey as a business owner began in her home as a Cottage Food Operator but as her customer base expanded, she quickly realized she needed a larger and better equipped food production space. We met Leah at LA Prep, a fulltime wholesale manufacturing and food production facility in Lincoln Heights, and learned all about her Semolina Artisanal Pasta business. Evan Kleiman, host of Good Food on KCRW, stopped by to make a wonderful dish with Leah's pasta and shared the beauty and benefits of using dried pasta in certain dishes.

Next, we met Shaunte Taylor, the owner and executive director of Ethan and Friends Family Daycare. Nestled in Baldwin Vista, just north of Baldwin Hills, this home-based daycare is just about everything a parent could want for their child. From creative learning centers, to farm-to-table lessons, Shaunte has not only transformed the interior of her home but also the exterior into a wonderful place of learning, discovery and creative exploration for children.

We conclude the episode with insights and tips from Jan Perry, General Manager of the Los Angeles Economic & Workforce Development Department. She shared the important role that small businesses play in the Los Angeles economy, provided specific information for Leah and Shaunte, and also detailed a step by step plan for those who might be interested in starting their own small business.

Future episodes of this series will profile and celebrate small business owners in L.A., and how their products and services are impacting the small business scene in Los Angeles. From Cottage Food Operators to Storefronts, to Non-profits and everything in between, get ready to meet the people who make L.A., on LA Makes.

MY MUSIC PRESENTS: CLOSE TO YOU - REMEMBERING THE CARPENTERS

This music-filled documentary traces the Carpenters' career through the eyes of Richard Carpenter and the group's friends in the music business, featuring their top recording hits, including "(They Long to Be) Close to You," "Top of the World," "For All We Know," "Superstar," "Yesterday Once More," "Rainy Days and Mondays" and "We've Only Just Begun." Between 1970 and 1983, the Carpenters were awarded 10 gold singles and 9 gold albums, many of which also achieved multi-platinum status. They won Grammy Awards as Best New Artist and Best Contemporary Vocal group in 1970 and for Album of the Year in 1971. That same year, Karen and Richard hosted the NBC-TV summer series, "Make Your Own Kind of Music" and later starred in a series of specials on ABC-TV into the 1980s. Their soundtrack recording of "Bless the Beasts and Children" was nominated for an Academy Award, and they performed it at the Oscar telecast in 1972.

From 1970 to 1981, the Carpenters consistently were represented on the Billboard charts with 17 of their singles in the Pop Top 20, including three #1 songs and six songs at #2 in addition to 17 songs hitting #1 on the Easy Listening chart. The Carpenters became the top American recording act of the 1970s and have sold over 100 million recordings worldwide. THE CARPENTERS: CLOSE TO YOU features interviews with Richard Carpenter in addition to the group's musicians, famous friends and colleagues, particularly those who helped them achieve stardom, including Herb Alpert, Paul Williams, Burt Bacharach and Petula Clark.
