A KNOCK AT THE DOOR

Paris. July, 1942. The massive roundup of Jews by the Nazis has just occurred. Thirteen thousand men, women, and children have been arrested and are being sent to Auschwitz. A young Jewish woman, pregnant with her first child, is admitted to the maternity hospital even before her labor begins. Her obstetrician hopes that hospitalization will protect her and the unborn baby from the roundups. Because of his actions, the young woman is not at home when the Nazis arrive to arrest her mother and two brothers. They will be sent to Auschwitz by the end of the month. Her husband is in a French prison in Lyon, arrested six months earlier while trying to find a safe place for him and his wife to hide in the Free Zone. When he left, he did not know she was pregnant. Her life and that of her new baby are in grave danger. Their only hope is to escape to the south, to the so-called Free Zone, where they might find someplace to hide. She must undertake this dangerous journey completely alone.

This documentary film features interviews with the woman who was the baby on that perilous journey 70 years ago. It also features footage and narration of the Nazis occupation of France during WW II. This is a story of great courage, the kindness of strangers, and luck. Over and over, their world changed with A Knock at the Door.

Airs Tuesday, May 17th at 8PM

TREBLINKA'S LAST WITNESS

Samuel Willenberg, now 92 years old, is the last living survivor of the Treblinka death camp in Nazi-occupied Poland, where an estimated 900,000 Jews were murdered in a 13-month period at the height of World War II. Still haunted 70 years later by the horrors he witnessed as a young forced laborer, Samuel has immortalized his harrowing experiences in a series of bronze sculptures of the tragic victims who dwell indelibly in his memory like ghosts. In Treblinka's Last Witness, the sculptures, together with archival footage and photographs from the period, illustrate Samuel's riveting narrative, telling a singularly powerful and personal story of the annihilation of Polish Jewry in the death camps built by the Germans to carry out Hitler's infamous "Final Solution." As a prisoner at Treblinka, he witnessed the death of his two beloved sisters, Itta and Tamara in the gas chambers, among countless others. In his sculptures, the most poignant of these individual tragedies are brought back to life. Treblinka's Last Witness focuses on one man's personal odyssey to reflect the enormity of the genocide inflicted upon Poland's 3.5 million Jews, at the time the world's largest Jewish community, and seven times greater than the Jewish population of pre-war Germany. Samuel Willenberg's story is one of survival against staggering odds and though heart-rending and horrifying, it is ultimately one of triumph.

CHANGING SEASON: ON THE MASUMOTO FAMILY FARM

"How many harvests do you have in you?" is the perennial echo that reverberates across the Masumoto Family peach farm. This film chronicles a transitional year-in-the-life of famed farmer, slow food advocate, and sansei, David "Mas" Masumoto, and his compelling relationship with daughter Nikiko, who returns to the family farm with the intention of stepping into her father's work boots. Mas' hopes and hesitations for the future are shored up with his daughter's return, as the family must navigate the implications of Mas' 60th birthday and triple bypass surgery. The film is interspersed with moments of Nikiko's razor sharp meditations on her family's internment during WWII and her role as a queer, progressive farmer in the Central Valley.
